About Family Help

Family Help is our way of working that brings together targeted early help and Child in Need support into a single, seamless offer. It replaces the traditional divide between early help and statutory services, making it easier for families to access support without stigma or duplication.

Key features of Family Help include:

- Whole-family approach – addressing needs across the family, not just the child.
- Single assessment and plan – reducing duplication and focusing on outcomes.
- Family Help Lead Practitioner role – acting as the main point of contact for families and coordinating the Team Around the Family
- Evidence-based interventions – practical, relational support that builds resilience and prevents escalation.
- Family-led planning, ensuring family-based solutions are at the heart of all we do.
- The right help at the right time by the right lead professional.

Purpose of the Role

This is a new role with a focus on supporting children with complex needs, as part of a team of social workers and an occupational therapist who will case hold the more complex Children and Young People with Disabilities (CWD) and their families across the city. The postholder ensures high-quality early help, statutory support, and inclusive community provision for children with complex needs, aligned with the Family Help reforms, working collaboratively across education, health, social care, partners, and the voluntary sector.

The post holder will provide timely, proportionate, strengths-based, and relational practice that meets statutory requirements, safeguards children, and supports positive outcomes.

You will model and promote a restorative, strengths based, 'whole family' approach to safeguarding, working with parents / carers of Children receiving targeted early help, Children in Need of Support and Protection, and children subject to Public Law Outline and Care Proceedings.

Main duties.

- Take professional responsibility for the effective management of a caseload of children with disabilities who have been assessed as having complex needs, ensuring they receive appropriate support, guidance, and timely interventions.
- Demonstrate confident and effective judgement about risk and accountability in decision-making and be able to sustain engagement with fluctuating circumstances and capacities, including where there is hostility and risk.
- Use assessment procedures discerningly in response to the presenting needs and to ensure that a proportionate assessment is completed in a way that enables maximum participation.
- Use professional judgement, employing a range of interventions: promoting independence, providing support and protection, taking preventative action and ensuring safety whilst balancing rights and risks.
- Take the lead in managing positive intervention that prevent deterioration in health and wellbeing whilst safeguarding people at risk of abuse or neglect.
- Undertake assessment and planning for safeguarding in more complex cases, and support colleagues by utilising safeguarding skills, in line with current policies and procedures.
- Play a leading role in practice development, help promote and sustain a learning culture and mentor alternatively qualified staff within the service.
- Share and present professional knowledge and expertise to colleagues within the wider family help service and with other partners as part of a specialist service

- Take professional and personal responsibility for clear recording of analysis and judgements, maintaining up to date case records on the database as required.
- Take responsibility for working within the Directorate's data protection policies.
- Co-working (where appropriate) with less experienced qualified staff and or alternatively qualified staff .
- Chair professional meetings where appropriate.
